

Cursive Paragraph: The Forest

The forest is alive with the sound of rustling leaves and chirping birds. Sunlight streams through the tall trees, creating patterns on the soft earth. A deer pauses by a clear stream, listening to the gentle hum of nature.

